

7. Did You Know?

10 Random Fun FACTS.

These fun facts don't have to be embarrassing - unless you want them to be.

However, some might be, others just funny but these are just a few tidbits that make you quirky and unique.

All you need to do is think of some fun and interesting things about yourself to write on your layout. Little pieces of information that you wouldn't normally mention in the course of a conversation with someone, unless the topic pops up.

To tie it all together, pick out a random photograph that you like of yourself.

You may even want to take pictures that relate to the fun facts you are mentioning. Check out your stash and pick out some happy-looking papers and create a page of random fun facts about yourself.
